Cookies

"Cookies" is what the data, filed on your computer's hard drive when you visit a site, is called. A "session cookie" expires immediately, when you end your session (i.e., close your browser). A "persistent cookie" stores information on the hard drive so, when you end your session and return to the same website at a later date, the cookie information is still available. We use the information collected by cookies to determine which parts of our website are visited most often, and to determine where on our site you may be experiencing technical difficulties.

Our goal is to improve the quality of our website, tailor our products and services to suit your personal interests, track and/or analyze visiting patterns, and resolve difficulties you may encounter while on our site.

IP Addresses

In general, you can visit our website without telling us who you are or providing us with any information. However we collect the IP (Internet Protocol) addresses of all visitors to our website. We only use IP addresses to resolve system problems, assist you in navigating our site via Live Person and deter unauthorized or abusive access to our site.

Children

Fast Motion Auto Transport will never knowingly or intentionally request or collect personal information from any person under 13 years of age, without prior verifiable parental consent. If we become aware that an individual is under the age of 13, and has submitted any information to Fast Motion Auto Transport for any purpose without prior verifiable parental consent, we will delete his or her information from our files.

If you are a parent and you think we have inadvertently collected such information from your child, you may email us at info@fastmotionautotransportllc.com or contact Customer Service at 1-888-892-3479.

Policy Changes

This policy replaces all previous disclosures we may have provided you about our information practices. We reserve the right to change this policy, and to apply any changes to information previously collected, as permitted by law. If there are material changes to this policy or our information practices change in the future, we will notify you by posting the policy changes on our website.
